COGNAC & WINE

Welcome to Hendriks Cognac & Wine. We were Sydney's first Cognac & Wine bar & now have brought that experience to the Southern Highlands. Our goal is to deliver relaxed drinking experiences in a new & unique way. Taking the 'snobbery' out of cognac & wine.

Named after the father of the owner, Hendriks delivers the joy that 'Henk' always had when sharing a Cognac or red with friends new or old. We want you to share in our hospitality & enjoy our unique take on wine, food & good times.

Our Cognac & wine list has been meticulously crafted, offering you the ultimate delights in taste, balance & quality. We have scoured the finest selection of wines from all over the world to bring you over 100 of our favourites.

Wine can be a tough world to navigate and people tend to stick to what they know & love. Our goal is to take the nonsense out & help our customers enjoy new tastes as well as old favourites from around the world.

At Hendriks, we are bringing you the deliciously unexpected, & representing the local region's finest food & wine. Put your trust in our knowledge & expertise & let us deliver. All you need to decide is who you'll share the experience with.

COGNAC

The biggest question we are asked is 'so why Cognac? Isn't it really strong & for old people?' Actually, no to both. Many things often associated with the drink known as eau de vie; water of life, are misconceptions & couldn't be further from the truth.

No longer is Cognac sipped from a huge balloon that's been heated by an old man & his butane gun. It's the new (old) kid on the block when it comes to cool. We have so many ways to start your Cognac journey. Whether in one of our handcrafted cocktails, trying a V.S with a mixer right through to an X.O on ice with a dash of soda.

Cognac will tantalise your tastebuds with a scope of flavours including spicy, fruity, sweet, bitter & we have chosen the very best for you.

Cognac is versatile, beautifully balanced & completely understated. We are here to put it back on the map..!

Here is a little more about a few of our favourites.

HENNESSY

Hennessy's quest for excellence has been constant since 1765. This is evident through a long, unbroken line of Master Blenders. Exercising daily tastings from a Tasting Committee of one of a kind experts to ensure only the very best gets chosen.

Doesn't it show? The savoir-faire of the Maison Hennessy is fully expressed in their balanced cognac: from the selection of eaux-de-vie, aging & assemblage. A cognac of remarkable consistency & vitality,

From its vibrant & dynamic personality through to its round & robust flavours. Hennessy delivers a powerful diversity evoking a wave of different emotions.

TESSERON

Cognac Tesson was founded in 1905 by Abel Tesson and is a Cognac house based in Châteauneuf-sur-Charente, France. Tesson specializes in high-end Cognac – XO and beyond – made from top vineyards including Boneuil in Grande Champagne and Domaine Saint-Surin in Petite Champagne.

They specialise in all three traditional Cognac grape varieties: Ugni Blanc, Folle Blanche and Colombard. Double-distilled in coal-heated copper pot stills, after the distillation process it is aged in old Limousine oak casks for at least eight years.

Composition pours a bright, light amber colour and offers aromatics of spiced autumn fruit, white flowers and fresh plum, while on the palate there is that classic Tesson texture and vinous, fruity complexity. It's important to note there is no added colour to Tesson Cognacs, it is the older material in this blend that brings the hue and depth.

COURVOISIER

Courvoisier Cognac is a delicate blend of art & science that combines old technique with new technologies. Crafted from 200 year old oak trees individually selected, there is a great deal of love & attention that goes in at every step of the way which results in these exquisite grapes.

Courvoisier is one of the few Cognac houses to 'distill on the lees', a specific technique unique which is how they create these delicate, youthful & lively blends. A beautiful balance of oak to strong notes of fresh fruit & exotic flavours.

LOUJAN BAS ARMAGNAC

Armagnac is France's oldest & finest brandy all produced in the Gascony region to the southeast of Bordeaux. Even to this day Armagnac remains a craft industry with small, artisanal producers using historic production methods & little promotion.

All of the Loujan Bas Armagnacs have been blended together by the great Marc Darroze, of Francis Darroze. Loujan lies within the historical confines of the "Grand Loujan Bas Armagnac Bas Armagnac" near the villages of Mormes. The tiny 5 ha Loujan vineyard is planted to all 3 varieties & each are vinified & distilled & aged separately on site. Loujan is traditionally distilled in a single continuous still known as an Alambic Armagnacais.

This process of heating the wine until it produces steam, capturing the rich, full bodied aromas in a pure & unaltered fashion, then converting the steam to the final 'Eau de vie', is exactly what sets Armagnac apart from other fine brandies.
